IMPORTANT SALE TODAY IN TREMONT ST.

Many important sales of city and suburban properties were reported in the Tremont street market today. Among the most notable was the sale of a large estate in the North End, owned by the late Mr. J. B. Sullivan. The property, which included a large house and several acres of land, was sold for $100,000. Other notable sales included a large estate in the South End, owned by the late Mr. J. B. Sullivan, which was sold for $150,000, and a large estate in the North End, owned by the late Mr. J. B. Sullivan, which was sold for $200,000.

TO-DAY'S STOCK MARKETS

STATE STREET, Feb. 2.—The Boston stock market today was characterized by a feeling of uncertainty, and opening prices were off from 1/4 to 1/2 in Wall Street from last night's closing. Consistent active commission house activity was noted, although the latter was a natural feature in the closing of the market. The feeling of uncertainty was due to the fact that the market was not sure of the future of the country, and the feeling of uncertainty was due to the fact that the market was not sure of the future of the country.
